"Bring in an independent construction expert and be on the safe side by becoming a member of Germany's biggest consumer protection organization for private builders."

ABOUT BAUHERREN-SCHUTZBUND E.V.

The Bauherren-Schutzbund e.V. (BSB) is active throughout Germany as a nonprofit consumer protection organization. Our 160 independent construction consultants (architects and engineers) and legal ombudsmen (lawyers specializing in building and architect law) offer needs-based advice to private builders regarding construction engineering and building regulations. In total we complete around 50,000 consumer consultations annually and support more than 10,000 projects for both existing and new buildings. In addition, we represent the consumer interests of private builders, real estate purchasers, and home owners dealing with policy, associations, and the construction and real estate industries.
